

The LITURGY

Profession of Faith

Human capacity for God

The Catholic Church teaches that "The desire for God is written in the human heart, because man is created by God and for God; and God never ceases to draw man to himself." While man may turn away from God, God never stops calling man back to him. Because man is created in the image and likeness of God, man can know with certainty of God's existence from his own human reason. But while "Man's faculties make him capable of coming to a knowledge of the existence of a personal God," in order "for man to be able to enter into real intimacy with him, God willed both to reveal himself to man, and to give him the grace of being able to welcome this revelation in faith."

In summary, the Church teaches "Man is by nature and vocation a religious being. Coming from God, going toward God, man lives a fully human life only if he freely lives by his bond with God."

God comes to meet humanity

The Church teaches God revealed himself gradually, beginning in the Old Testament, and completing this revelation by sending his son, Jesus Christ, to Earth as a man. This revelation started with Adam and Eve, and was not broken off by their original sin; rather, God promised to send a redeemer. God further revealed himself through covenants between Noah and Abraham. God delivered the law to Moses on Mount Sinai, and spoke through the Old Testament prophets. The fullness of God's revelation was made manifest through the coming of the Son of God, Jesus Christ.

Thank You!

With Gratitude and appreciation.

We thank all those who participated during Lenten Season in various ways to help everyone to have a fruitful Lenten Season and a holy Triduum. Sometimes a little help, support, kindness and caring is what makes togetherness, such as;

- making Soup Supper on Fridays,
- decorating the church
- arranging the church for the liturgy
- Choir members,
- Liturgical ministers
- participating the prayer sessions
- church cleaning etc. etc.

Once again thank you and appreciate your contribution to the parish.
